

CONFERENCE ON

RURAL INDIA:

Towards inclusion of the marginalized

7th – 9th November 2019, BAIF Campus, Warje, Pune

VAF

VikasAnvesh Foundation
An Initiative of TATA TRUSTS

Call for Papers

VikasAnvesh Foundation (VAF) is a research center working on the issues which are of importance to the disenfranchised and the poor.

VAF is organizing its second annual conference “Rural India: Towards inclusion of the marginalized” from 7th to 9th November 2019, in Pune. The conference aims to bring together researchers, policymakers, representatives of the civil society and media to discuss the important yet unattended issues facing the development sector.

VAF invites you to submit abstracts on the following themes:

Challenges faced by Government in serving
Scattered and Disenfranchised groups

Welfare and Healthcare of Rural Elderly

Under-Representation of Muslims in Higher Education

Commons Property
Resources and Rural Livelihoods

Scaling up of Sustainable Agriculture

Important Dates:

Last date of abstract submission: 25-Sept-19

Notification of acceptance of abstracts: 5-Oct-19

Registration Fees: Rs 1500

(includes Conference Material, Lunch & Tea)

Date of the Conference:

7 - 9 November, 2019

Venue of the Conference:

BAIF, Manibhai Desai Nagar,
Warje, Pune

The link for registration and guidelines for abstracts will be available at www.vikasanvesh.in

Participants are requested to send their abstract to conference@vikasanvesh.in Selected abstracts will be considered for publication by India Development Review (IDR).